BOOKS, BOOTS, SHOES, &c.
(S. C. BULL,
SUCCESSOR TO W. M. TODD.)

HAS purchased this old and well-known establishment, and will continue the same, and the continuance of the age of the former customers, and give him the little innocents who pain shall be spared to give satisfaction to those who may favor him with a call.

A Specific for Hooping-Cough.
IT is known by a few individuals in the counties of Jefferson, Shelby, and Oldham, that I have a remedy that effectually cures Hooping-Cough. If there are remedies in America or Europe that cure it, it is not within my knowledge, (except the one I use). Physicians tell me that they attend it, but they are not cured. I have no doubt they are candid in what they state. To get the medicine in use, and to let to sleep a deep-rooted prejudice, the faculty are invited to get the medicine, and save the little innocents whom they attend, and tell them no more it cannot be cured. One dollar will pay for two bottles, which is a satisfaction for one child. This medicine can be conveyed by any part of the United States by express for a mere trifle. Residence Green street, between Flood and Preston, south side, No. 49, Louisville, Ky.

TUESDAY..... JULY 26, 1859.

A Peaceable Election.

In another column we publish the correspondence between a number of gentlemen of both the political parties in regard to the maintenance of law and order at the several voting places in this county upon the day of election, together with the agreement made by a committee of Democrats and Opponents representing all the precincts of the county. The correspondence between the parties who brought about the appointment of the committees is given in full. Responses were received from several other gentlemen of the Opposition to whom the proposition of Messrs. Dudley, Garrard, and others was addressed, and some of these answers we publish in connection with the action of the committee of ten.

The recommendations of the committee are such as must meet the approval of all good citizens, and we trust that they will be carried out in good faith. We are assured that the Democracy throughout the county will stand up to the agreement made by their representatives, and the Opposition cannot do otherwise without being guilty of an act of treachery, which we would be unwilling to charge upon them in advance. It is fair to presume that both parties are acting in good faith; and if this be so, we shall have a fair and free election, undisturbed by violence or unlawful disorder.

Capt. Simms addressed a very large audience in this place on Friday night, and it is the opinion of most of those who heard him, as well as our own, that his speech was the ablest effort made here by any one for years past. Indeed we have heard nothing to compare with it since the last Presidential campaign. In the course of his remarks, he mentioned the fact that Mr. Rodman had undertaken to meet him at Bridgeport that day, and he invited the gentleman to respond to him at Frankfort.

But Mr. Rodman was not so rash as to accept his challenge, and we do not blame him; for it is said by most persons who heard the discussion at Bridgeport, that the Opposition candidate for the Legislature was demolished, in fact, worse used up than he was by Clay last year at Peak's mill. Neither hair nor hide was left him in the encounter, and we are much mistaken if he ever consents again to discuss with a Democratic Congressman in this county or elsewhere.

We never saw as large a turn out of the Democracy of this precinct as assembled Friday night in the court-house, and from this indication, as well as from the thrilling effect of Capt. Simms' speech, we are beginning to believe confidently that Franklin will give him a very handsome majority. Clay carried this county in 1857 by 36 majority; let us improve on this for our gallant standard-bearer in the present contest. He is worthy of our best efforts.

The Opposition print which undertakes a defense of Mr. Page does not meet the question squarely. It dodges the law and dodges the facts. Everybody knows that we have done and are doing work for the Auditor's office—but the Commissioners' blanks, Common School blanks, and Registration blanks for 1859 and 1860, a fat job of several thousand dollars given to Col. Hodges two years in advance—ah, there's the rub! These blanks are annual affairs, are used every year, and could be and ought to be sent out each year separately, when the public documents and Metcalfe's Reports are distributed.

Besides this law, in the case of the Commissioners' blanks, says they shall be printed by the Public Printer under the direction of the Auditor, and sent out by the first day of January in EACH year. Will any fair disinterested man, with the facts and the law before him, take the position that Mr. Page had any right to get Col. Hodges to print these blanks for the two years embraced in our term of office, and pay him for them out of the public money? If he had, why then the last Legislature might as well not have elected us to do the public printing from August 1, 1858, to August 1, 1860.

Propositions for Maintaining Order at the Polls in Frankfort.

Correspondence.
FRANKFORT, July 9, 1859.
Messrs. C. S. Morehead, Orlando Brown, T. N. Lindsey, A. G. Hodges, A. W. Dudley, H. I. Todd, H. I. Morris, Thos. S. Page, James Harlan, P. Swigert, John T. Roberts, Thos. M. Green, John Rodman, John M. Harlan, Mason Brown, E. H. Taylor, James Monroe, and G. W. Craddock.

GENT: The undersigned recognizing in you gentlemen of high character, and believing that you, as well as ourselves, deprecate some acts of violence that have occurred at the Frankfort precinct at some previous elections, and feeling that you would readily and willingly co-operate in some agreed plan for the prevention of any disorder at the polls at the next August election, beg leave to submit to you the following proposition, viz:

You select a committee of three, and we will select a committee of the same number, and they shall select a Vigilance Committee of ten gentlemen from each of the political parties, and the twenty men shall be present at the polls on the day of the election and see that every person entitled to a vote shall have the privilege of voting without molestation.

We shall be pleased to receive a reply by Monday, the 18th inst.

We are, very respectfully,
J. DUDLEY,
J. H. GARRARD,
J. P. METCALFE,
R. R. REVILL,
P. U. MAJOR,
P. SHANNON,
D. M. BOWEN,
J. W. TATE,
S. I. M. MAJOR.

FRANKFORT, July 18, 1859.
To Messrs. J. Dudley, J. H. Garrard, J. P. Metcalfe, R. R. Revill, P. U. Major, Jas. Shannon, D. M. Bowen, J. W. Tate, S. I. M. Major:

GENTLEMEN: We received your communication of the date of July 9th, addressed to ourselves and with a request that we should answer by this present date.

Your communication is in the following words: "The undersigned recognizing in you gentlemen of high character, and believing that you, as well as ourselves, deprecate some acts of violence that have occurred at the Frankfort precinct at some previous elections, and feeling that you would readily and willingly co-operate in some agreed plan for the prevention of any disorder at the polls at the next August election, beg leave to submit to you the following proposition, viz: You select a committee of three, and we will select a committee of the same number, and they shall select a committee of ten gentlemen from each of the political parties, and the twenty men shall be present at the polls on the day of the election and see that every person entitled to a vote shall have the privilege of voting without molestation."

In response to this, we beg leave respectfully to state, that we are not apprised of any intention on the part of our friends to do any unlawful act whatever at this or any other precinct in the county on the day of the election. And we hereby utterly disclaim any such purpose, and are somewhat at a loss to understand why it has been supposed by you that there is a necessity for any such extraordinary precautions as you recommend.

But, being desirous at all times of seeing law and order preserved, and thinking that this can be done without forming ourselves into a "Vigilance committee" that is in itself unauthorized by the laws, we would suggest to you whether the object you have in view could not better be carried out by the appointment of a committee of five on each side, to be selected from each precinct in Franklin county, who should agree upon some line of conduct to be pursued by both parties, and that the committee of ten thus raised jointly recommend its adoption at all the precincts.

We are, very respectfully,
Yours, &c.,
ORLANDO BROWN,
A. W. DUDLEY,
P. SWIGERT,
T. M. GREEN.

FRANKFORT, July 18th, 1859.
Messrs. Orlando Brown, A. W. Dudley, P. Swigert, and T. M. Green:

Your note of to-day's date is received. We have not received replies from several gentlemen to whom we addressed ours of the 9th inst. We however accept without hesitation the proposition contained in your letter, and name the committee of five on our side therein proposed, viz: James H. Garrard, John A. Holton, Scott Brown, J. W. French, and Lawrence Gordon. This committee will be ready to meet your committee at the court-house on Wednesday next, at two o'clock, P. M., if that time and place be agreeable to you.

We are, very respectfully,
J. DUDLEY,
J. H. GARRARD,
R. R. REVILL,
J. P. METCALFE,
D. M. BOWEN,
S. I. M. MAJOR,
JAS. W. TATE.

FRANKFORT, July 21, 1859.
To Messrs. J. Dudley, J. H. Garrard, R. R. Revill, J. P. Metcalfe, D. M. Bowen, S. I. M. Major, and Jas. W. Tate.

GENTLEMEN: We have received yours of the date of July 18th, in answer to our response to yours of the 9th inst. You named Wednesday as the day for the meeting of the committee. This did not give us time to address to you replies from the various precincts to whom we thought of applying to act with your committee.

In the suggestion we made to you, we only intended to convey our individual opinion as to what would be the best plan for carrying out your views. We had no authority to act for any but ourselves, and we were only four out of some eighteen or twenty to whom you had addressed a similar communication, from many of whom you received separate replies. Those replies must have convinced you that we were not acting in any representative capacity, nor have we any authority so to act. Still, as individuals, we will request five of the members of our party to unite with the five already named by you, with the hope that the joint committee may agree in recommending some course of action that will meet the approbation of all parties. We have accordingly addressed notes to Hon. Ben Monroe, J. W. Russell, Thomas Steele, C. D. Morris, and J. D. Robinson, with a request that they should meet your committee on Monday next, which seemed to us to be sufficiently early for the purposes designed to be effected by the meeting.

We beg leave again to repeat here what we said in our first communication—that we are not apprised of any intention on the part of our friends to do any unlawful act whatever, nor have we the slightest idea that there is any necessity for unusual precautions to be taken to preserve the peace at the polls in Frankfort. And we wish again to assure you that we do not have done in the premises has been solely done in our individual capacity and not as representing any party or persons but ourselves. And we must repeat our objection to anything like a "Vigilance Committee" as suggested by you, incurring a tribunal between the Judges and the people not known to the laws, and which in our judgment would unavoidably lead to strife.

Respectfully, yours,
ORLANDO BROWN,
T. M. GREEN,
A. W. DUDLEY,
P. SWIGERT.

Recommendations of the Committee.
We, the undersigned, having been called together by mutual friends to devise some effectual plan to preserve order at the ensuing election, after consulting and exchanging views, have come to the conclusion that all we can do is to give our advice to use every means to keep down any undue excitement.

We say that no man ought to offer to vote unless he believes he has the right to do so. That no man should be obstructed in the exercise of the right to vote, in any way, and that the practice of depriving men of the right of voting, whether by fraud, threats, or violence, is alike unjustified, and should not be encouraged. We recommend that there be no spirituous liquors sold on the election day at the places of voting or in the vicinity thereof.

We make these recommendations not in a spirit of dictation, but for the benefit of mutual friends and the preservation of order.

Correspondence.
FRANKFORT, July 16, 1859.

GENTLEMEN: Your letter of the 12th inst. has been received and respectfully considered, and I regret that it has not been convenient for me to give it an earlier answer.

Certainly no man ought to be deprived of his lawful right of suffrage, and I entirely agree with you in disapproving and condemning disorder and violence at our elections. Any plan or arrangement for their prevention, in aid of the law, which may be agreed upon by you and the gentlemen to whom you have submitted your proposition, will meet my acquiescence.

Even if no plan of co-operation be agreed upon, it will still remain the duty of all and every one of us to endeavor, as best he can, to preserve good order and the public peace; and we will all try, I hope, not to be wanting in that duty.

Hoping that the ensuing election may prove as orderly and quiet as you could wish it, I remain, Yours, &c.,
J. J. CRITTENDEN.

To Messrs. J. Dudley, James Shannon, J. H. Garrard, D. M. Bowen, R. R. Revill, J. P. Metcalfe, S. I. M. Major, P. U. Major, J. W. Tate.

FRANKFORT, July 18, 1859.

Messrs. J. H. Garrard, James Shannon, &c.:
GENTLEMEN: On my return home on Saturday I received your note of the 9th inst. I have ever regarded it my duty to do everything in my power to secure a quiet and peaceable election, and will cheerfully at all times give every aid in my power for that purpose. Such a result can be best secured by the discretion and moderation of our citizens, and I believe that all good men will unite in setting the proper example. I do not belong to any Executive Committee, and feel that I have no power to constitute a committee to discipline any such purpose, and are somewhat at a loss to understand why it has been supposed by you that there is a necessity for any such extraordinary precautions as you recommend.

Very respectfully, yours,
MASON BROWN.

FRANKFORT, July 18, 1859.

GENTLEMEN: Your communication of the 9th inst. was received several days after its date. In reply, I have to state, that as the sheriff of Franklin county, I expect to hold the election at the Frankfort precinct, and, being a peace officer, will discharge my duty.

Respectfully,
H. I. TODD.
To J. Dudley, J. H. Garrard, and others.

J. Dudley, Esq., and others:
I have yours of the 9th inst. As I have never interfered with elections as such, I decline doing so now; but hope some satisfactory arrangement may be made by those having the control of such matters. I am, respectfully,
THO. S. PAGE.

FRANKFORT, 19th July, 1859.

Peace Declared—Lombardy Conceded to France and Austria to Sardinia—The Pope Honorary President.

FARTHER POINT, July 24.—The steamer North Briton from Liverpool on the 13th, and bound for Quebec, has been intercepted off this point, and a most important document has been obtained. The steamer Anglo Saxon, from Quebec, arrived at Liverpool on the 11th inst. The advice by the North Briton are four days later than those furnished by the steamer Anglo, and are of a highly important character in a political and financial point of view.

A treaty of peace between Austria and France and Sardinia had already been concluded.

The provisions of this treaty are briefly as follows: An Italian Confederacy is to be formed under the Honorary Presidency of the Pope of Rome. Austria concedes Lombardy to France. Napoleon, in turn, grants those possessions to Sardinia. Austria retains the right of rule over Venice.

The steamer left Liverpool before the effect of this news had time to be developed.

Cyrus W. Field came passenger in the North Briton, having accomplished the object of his trans-Atlantic visit.

The Paris Monitor explains a circumstance attending the armistice. It says: "The great neutral powers exchange communications with the belligerents, but it was unsuccessful until the French fleet was about commencing hostilities against Venice, and the conflict before Verona was imminent; when Napoleon, anxious to prevent further bloodshed, ascertained the disposition of the Emperor of Austria, and finding him willing, an armistice was concluded."

The two Emperors had an interview on the 11th, at Villa Franza.

The ARMISTICE.—A dispatch from Turin says: Napoleon has issued a bulletin from Vallegio announcing the armistice, congratulating the troops on their glorious achievements; and announcing his immediate departure for Paris, leaving the provisional command of the army to Marshal Vaillant.

The London Times claims that England brought about this armistice. Other authorities give the credit to Prussia.

A Verona telegram says, the armistice was concluded only after repeated requests from the French, and after Austria had obtained all she had asked for.

It was reported that Kossuth was to prepare a monarchial government for Hungary.

The following is a copy of a telegram from Napoleon to the Empress Eugenie, announcing that peace had been declared.

VALEGIO, July 11.—A treaty of peace has been signed between the Emperor of Austria and myself, on the following basis:

The Italian Confederacy is to be under the honorary Presidency of the Pope. The Emperor of Austria concedes his right in Italy to the Emperor of the French, who transfers them to the King of Sardinia.

The Emperor of Austria preserves Venice, but she will form an integral part of the Italian Confederation. [Signed] NAPOLEON.

DROWNED.—We regret to learn that Wm. A. Carter, a son of Dr. L. Carter, living near Camdensville, in Anderson county, was drowned in Salt river, near his father's residence, on Saturday last. He was bathing, and diving near a large tree, probably became entangled in the roots, and could not rise again. A number of persons were in with him, but before they could render him any assistance he was beyond recovery. He was a young man of great promise, and we deeply sympathize with the Doctor in his loss. This is the second son he has lost by accident in the last few years, a son of his having been killed by the falling of a tree about two years since.

[From the Lexington Statesman.]
A Test of Confidence.

We are requested by a gentleman of this city to say he is ready to bet

$1,000 that Capt. Wm. E. Simms will be elected as the Representative of this District in the next Congress.

Are there any takers?

[For the Yeoman.]
Speaking at Bald Knob.

EDITOR YEOMAN: At Bald Knob yesterday I had the pleasure of seeing and mingling with a host of the simon pure Democrats of Franklin, Democrats who cherish Democracy for the blessings and privileges its principles and supporters have achieved and maintained for our glorious Union in every trial. Bald Knob consists of all most an entire patriotic band of Union Democrats, of men who love principle, not men; who love equal rights and privileges, and scorn the idea of arraying sect against sect, or section against section. Hence they are against the Free Soilers, Abolitionists, and K. N's. They stand by the Constitution for the government of the white man, but cannot consent that the negro is or ever will be equal, or entitled to the enjoyments or responsibilities of the white man, whilst this is a confederacy of freemen.

The appointment was published for Capt. Simms and Hon. Jas. B. Clay. Neither arriving at the appointed time, Geo. R. Vallandigham was called for, who responded, that as his competitor was not present, it would not be prudent for him to do more by way of a speech than to announce himself as a candidate to represent Franklin county in the next Legislature, and request the Democrats to unite in his support, as he was a candidate not from any personal ambition, but at the call of the party. We were gratified to see the manly, respectful manner in which he made the announcement, as also the cordial endorsement it received. Col. Garrard, candidate for State Treasurer, then took the stand, and said he had not come there with the view of making a speech; but as those expected to speak had not arrived, he would give them a few of the reasons why he would vote the entire Democratic ticket, and why he hoped the whole ticket would be elected. The first was because the Democratic party was the only party able and willing to maintain this Union. As for the Opposition party, it was not known across the Ohio river. It took the cognomen of Black Republican party, and he hoped all good patriots would shape their course so as never to let that party get power, for he feared they had neither principle nor honesty; and he hoped, as all the powers and blessings now enjoyed by the American people were the production or consequence of the Democratic party, that it deserved the confidence and undivided support of all who desired a continuation of those blessings and our glorious Union. I will not pretend to follow Mr. Garrard further, as I cannot refrain from giving Capt. Goins a short rehearsal.

He took the stand and made a bold, respectful relation of his feelings and principles; said he was no speaker—not even blessed with an education; but he had become convinced that the Democratic party was right, and he intended to act with them throughout, except for representative, and he would do that from personal considerations. He spoke like a sensible, business man, fervently, earnestly, and we believe, honestly. He said it was a strange sort of maneuver for the American party to pretend that they were supporting Mr. Bell honestly, after they had given the pledge, signs, and pass words to insure only those of a certain order; whilst Mr. Bell pledged as solemnly he never would; on the top of that, to actually go into partnership with the Black Republican party, or, as Prentice termed it, form an alliance with them, to abuse the Democratic men and measures, he thought was a cheat and a swindle; for Mr. Bell tries very hard to agree with the Kansas policy of Mr. Buchanan, and he tries to be a better pro-slavery man than Magoffin. But it looks very unnatural to see the party form an alliance with the Abolition party, if they are sincere in slavery protection. How an Abolitionist can protect slavery I can't understand, and how a pro-slavery man can unite with an Abolitionist I can't understand. So I think they are making a bad bargain, and I don't intend to be a party to it, and hope the Democratic party will be sustained. He displayed some noble sentiments, and done it in a calm, dignified, feeling manner. He warmed up the hearts of many Democrats.

When he closed, in response to a call, D. S. Crockett walked to the stand, and made apology that he came to hear, and that as it seemed all ultimately would join us, and as they had been well entertained with proof tending that way notwithstanding the appointed speakers had not come, he would make a little improvement on what Capt. Goins had said, and say that he intended to vote the Democratic ticket throughout without dotting an i or crossing a t, and thanked them for the flattering call.

Capt. Simms got to the grounds by 4 o'clock, and by 5 nearly all the crowd reassembled. Capt. Simms took the stand, and I am candid when I say you, for at least three quarters of an hour his eloquence and argument has not been surpassed in this district for many years. As he will make several speeches in the county before he leaves, I think it would be indiscreet in me to synopsise his speech, but must say it lacked very little of pleasing all who heard it.

CREEK.

DEMOCRATS.—On next Monday duty to your county imperatively demands that each and every one of you shall go to the polls and deposit your votes for the nominees of your party, a party which patriotic and Union-loving men esteem and confide in, a party that has ever been the steadfast friend and defender of the Constitution and the Union, and the only party that can claim a national organization.

Time has exemplified that the only hope for the perpetuation of our free and enlightened system of government rests with the success of the Democratic party. Having the well-being of all sections of our common country at heart; giving no one section favors or privileges which it will not give to another; recognizing no geographical or social distinctions; it is emphatically and undeniably the party of the nation. Opposed to all error it is the foe of all parties or factions whose principles or declarations are calculated to widen the breach between the North and South; therefore, the Northern Abolitionist and the Southern extremist obtain neither countenance or sympathy from it. Both are enemies to our peace and happiness, and we must consequently be enemies of the Democratic party.

On Monday we are to meet, at the ballot-box, one of the most wary and unscrupulous foes we have ever yet contended against, and it behooves us to be vigilant, and ever on the alert. Now is no time for "standing in the market-place all day idle." We must work, and that unceasingly. By proper exertions we can largely increase our majority in this county. In God's name, let us do it.—Cyn. Age.

HEAVY LAND SUITS IN KENTUCKY.—We understand that some non-resident heirs are about to commence suit in the Federal Court at Frankfort, to recover about forty-two thousand acres of the best lands in Nicholas, Bourbon, Harrison, and other adjoining counties. The claim covers land worth over a million of dollars. John L. Scott, of Maysville, is the attorney for the non-residents. He passed through Covington a few days since, on his way to Frankfort, to make some investigations in regard to these claims. When we hear the names of Nicholas, Harrison, and other adjoining counties, we are reminded of the title to their lands? The Legislature should at once take some steps to quiet all land titles in the State.—Cin. Enquirer.

[From the Paducah Herald.]
To the People of the First Congressional District of Ky.

Something since I became a candidate to represent this District in the next Congress of the United States, at the request of many of my friends who desired to honor me with a seat in Congress. At the time I did not believe that Mr. Burnett would be a candidate, from his former declarations and his position in regard to rotation. In this, however, I was disappointed. Mr. Burnett and myself have canvassed this District thus far together, and I am satisfied that the interest of the Democratic party, of which I have ever been a firm adherent, requires that one of us should retire from the contest—believing that it is the duty of every man to sacrifice his personal aspirations for the promotion of the principles of his party. I therefore feel no hesitation in withdrawing my name from the canvass, and I hope I may meet with the approbation of my friends. In becoming a candidate, I was not only actuated by the wish of my friends, but by, I trust, a laudable ambition and patriotic desire to serve my country. In prosecuting the canvass, I have met with much kindness and flattering encouragement from the people of the different counties in the District for which I feel profoundly grateful, and I take this occasion to return my sincere thanks to my friends for the interest they have manifested in my behalf, and I hope they will approve my course.

In conclusion, permit me to say, that I regret to see the general apathy prevailing in this District in regard to our elections.

I regard this as a very important crisis. At the next session of the Legislature we have a general election to elect and the State is to be apportioned, which should be enough to arouse every Democrat to a full discharge of his duty; and in addition to this, our election for Governor is of vast importance, not only in regard to State politics, but its effects will be felt in the Presidential contest.

What is the condition of our country in a national point of view? Two great political parties—one sectional in its doctrines and waging a war upon the institutions of the South—a party willing to trample under foot the guarantees in the Federal Constitution in favor of the South—a party built up by appeals to the prejudices of the North—founded upon the ignorance of our institutions and based upon fanaticism—growing in strength, and now wielding a powerful influence in Congress, and which may soon have a majority—I mean the Black Republican party. In opposition to this, where is the party that has the strength and the power to battle with them? Where is the party that has stood up for the institutions of the South—that has rolled back this dark wave of fanaticism which threatened the perpetuity of our Union? Where is the party that are not only willing, but who have the power to resist the Black Republicans—to uphold the Constitution of our forefathers—that Constitution under which we have enjoyed a greater degree of civil and religious liberty than any people upon the habitable globe?

Every candid man will answer it is the Democratic party. There is no other party which has the strength. One by one our men have been cut down, and their places filled by Black Republicans in the North. For what? For their advocacy of the principles of justice and equality of rights to the South under the Federal Constitution. Thus our men have been slaughtered, until we have a bare majority. I appeal to Southern men of all parties to unite with us. Let us in the South present a united front. Suppose, by a combination of all parties opposed to Democracy, you could turn us out of power, what would be the result? What party would take our place? You are bound in all candor to answer "The Black Republican."

The moment you tear down the old Democratic flag, up goes the black flag of the North, emblazoned upon its folds war to the hilt upon Southern rights. What can you of the American party of Kentucky promise us, however patriotic you may be? Where is your power? Where is your strength? In the last Presidential contest you only carried one State. You have not the strength. Why then will you not join with us? Why will you not join with the only party that has the power and the strength to maintain your rights?

The result of the gubernatorial race will have great influence upon the Presidential contest. If you beat us, you accomplish nothing. If you only show to the North that we stand divided among ourselves. Why can you not lay aside prejudice? Pause and reflect upon the result—let us present an undivided front—let us stand together in the South. But if all appeals fail there is yet one hope left. It is with the Democratic party—that party which has always stood by the Federal Constitution, and dealt out evenhanded justice to the South and the North—that party under whose principles we have grown to a State of proud prosperity—that party which knows no South, no North—which loves the Union of our States, and which is determined to uphold the Constitution of our forefathers and to see that its guarantees are carried out. With us remains the hope—upon us devolves the duty. Let us therefore lay aside all prejudice and preference for men. Let us all stand together—let every man do his whole duty.

In our State canvass we have been deprived of the able services of our distinguished candidate for Lieutenant Governor, Col. Boyd. That able and veteran statesman has been struck down by Presidential affliction, and although recovering, yet is prostrate and unable to take the field; and although this has been the case, yet he has been hunted down, by a party press, with a malignity unequalled in the annals of political warfare. Vituperation has been heaped upon him of the most reckless and virulent character. Let all of his friends rally to the polls and show, that although he has not been among us in this canvass, yet we have not forgotten his patriotic services for our country. He has not only had the respect of our district, but the confidence of the people of this Confederacy, as manifested by his twice being elected by their representatives Speaker of the House of Representatives in Congress. Let us, then, on the first Monday in August, administer a rebuke to those who have slandered him, and show that those among whom he has spent his life, and who know him still, respect him and take delight in honoring him.

In the dark and gloomiest days of Democracy, this district has maintained its integrity. Let us now maintain the high character that we have acquired, and on the first Monday in August, rally to the polls and show to the people of the State that the indomitable Democracy of the first district have lost none of their zeal—that our district is still the Gibraltar of Democracy of Kentucky.

Respectfully, your ob't serv't,
OSCAR TURNER.

The Preponderating Influence.

The Louisville Journal admits, in the following plea for a coalition between the Black Republicans and Southern Opposition, what we have repeatedly asserted—viz: That in any consolidated Opposition party, Abolition influence must prevail:

"Why cannot the North trust that party? They will have, as it must always have, from its superior numbers, a preponderating voice in the election of a truly national party. It need fear no obstruction in inflicting vengeance on its perfidious representatives. None will more heartily rejoice in the political death of Northern Lecontean dogfishes than the Southern Whigs. None will unite more cheerfully than they, in bringing Kansas into the Union, and thus undoing the wrongful, dishonoring and insulting discrimination between a free and a slave State, made by the corrupt Democracy, under the imperious dictation of Southern disunionists."
